

Day-6 ACTIVITY 10.07.17

CLASS-FOIBLE TREAT

On 10.7.17, Foible treat D6 activity was conducted with great fervor and enthusiasm. In class -1, Teacher divided the whole class into groups comprising 7-8 members in each group. In this activity, Teacher had provided a range of situations of good manners to all groups. Each group demonstrated in front of the class. Then rest of the class after their observation had drawn their inferences to justify the given situations showcased by their classmates.

For this, they had prepared symmetrical, elegant flags as a prop, which had green on one side and red in another to express their views in general. The principle object of this activity was to imbibe values and showcased their talent of prompt performance in dramatization and to boost their confidence to take in life.
