

REPORT: English Week Celebration at MAPS, ASHOK VIHAR

'The English Language is the accretion and growth of every dialect, race and range of time, and is both the free and Compacted composition of all.'

A great week and many learning-with-fun moments were there for all the students. The school celebrated 'English Week' where linguistic skills polishing sessions with fun-filled online activities were organized from April 12.4.2021 - 16.4.2021. An array of events was conducted with the motive to enhance the vocabulary, language skills and make learning more enjoyable.

1

Students of class 1 made word train where they framed sentences using the words written on train compartments. The students participated with great zeal and enthusiasm by showcasing their hidden talents in creativity.

2

Students of class 2 made word train where they wrote a few action and naming words on it. Using the same words, they created stories enthusiastically and presented the same.

3

Students of Class 3 created their own newspaper where they attached different articles/pictures related to weather forecast, lost and found, cartoon sketch/funny etc. The students participated with great enthusiasm by showcasing their hidden talents in creativity.

4

The students of Class 4 engaged themselves into becoming story tellers as they started their English week with full zeal. The students worked on their stories throughout the week and came up with some beautiful and creative presentations. Students picked a few new words newspaper/magazine and created their own story using those words.

Our efficient Agarsainians of Class 5 prepared "MY CULTURE SHEET" to sharpen their vocabulary. It was a fun-filled educational learning experience for all. There was 100% participation which made the event more successful.
