VISIT TO UDAI, AN NGO FOR SPECIAL KIDS

" We cannot do great things but together we can do small things in a great way"

The students of MAPS visited UDAI ,a Non-Profit Charitable Trust which works for children and young adults with special needs. The visit was organised to respect and build compassion among students to accept differently abled children with open arms .Agarsainians sharpened their social skills with the insightful experience of how the NGO's support themselves through various handmade products.

This visit brought smile on children's faces as they distributed frooti and snacks to their new friends. The young citizens of tomorrow vowed to support such organisations in future.
