

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF LALA LAJPAT RAI

(28TH JANUARY)

"I declare that the blows struck at me today will be the last nails in the coffin of British rule in India"

These were the last words of Lala Lajpat Rai, who gave 'Simon Go Back' slogan. He was a great leader, historian, eminent editor, social and religious reformer, and powerful orator. His trinity of militant leaders 'Lal-Bal-Pal' played a crucial role in the independence of India. On the birth anniversary of the 'Lion of Punjab', enthusiastic Agarsainians reminisced about his courage and sacrifice and paid tribute to one of the greatest freedom fighters by making posters, reciting poems of valour and writing slogans.

