

MORNING ASSEMBLY-26.09.19(CLASS 2-E)

STRANGER IS DANGER

'Morning Assembly' was conducted by the students of class II-E. The students of the class began with the prayer, thought of the day and daily news headlines. The news was followed by poem 'Stranger Danger' highlighting the rules to follow when interacting with strangers. The poem was followed by various quotations spoken by the students. Each of them was well supported by banners and props. In the end students performed a group dance on the song "Talking to Stranger" and was appreciated by one and all. The students were very excited while performing on the stage.

Assembly was well synchronized and gave a message that:

'STRANGERS ARE NOT OUR FRIENDS'.
