

MORNING ASSEMBLY OF CLASS IV A (23.08.2018)

Theme: Rakshabandhan- A bond of love

India is the land of festivals. All the festivals have its own importance. One of them is Raksha Bandhan, unique gift of Indian culture.

Rakhi is a traditional Indian festival, which is celebrated during the monsoon by every states of India with various ways and styles. Raksha Bandhan is also known as Rakhi festival, which is one of the most famous Indian festivals. Rakhi festival is the eternal bond between a brother and his sister for love and protection. Students of class IV A also celebrated the festival by telling its importance and when it is celebrated. They sang as well as danced to show their happiness. They also told how this festival is celebrated in various states of India. Along with it, the students depicted a legend and the historical story.

