

III A ASSEMBLY

The students conducted the morning assembly on the theme-“Self discipline is the best discipline”. The assembly started by sharing the news for the day and the topic of the assembly. The students displayed the importance of self discipline through a short skit after which they presented some tips on how to follow self discipline everyday to achieve success. The speech mentioning the importance of self discipline was shared as well. The assembly ended with poem recitation by the whole class on the same topic where students used actions and voice modulation for an enhanced impact. This was followed by a closing message by the class teacher and a short quiz to test the learning of the present audience.
