

BASANT PANCHAMI

14.2.24

“Basant Panchami, a time to honor Goddess Saraswati, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge, wisdom, and enlightenment.”

The Basant Panchami celebration at MAPS was a delightful blend of tradition, culture, and creativity. A Special ceremony was held to worship Saraswati Ma, the goddess of knowledge.

The day began with a special morning assembly featuring prayers, hymns and speech highlighting the significance of Basant Panchami. A traditional havan ceremony was conducted, where students and teachers dressed in yellow attire participated to seek blessings for academic success and prosperity.

On this special day, children participated in various activities like tearing and pasting, handmade kites, scenery depicting the essence of festival different activities with craft material.

Through various activities and rituals, students not only learned about the festival's significance but also experienced the joy of coming together as a community to celebrate the arrival of spring and the spirit of knowledge and learning.