No. of Students- 1 (Riya Garg)

Synopsis- The student presented the latest national, international, sports and weather news to make other students aware of the important events happening around them. It was quite informative.

Presentation 2- Thoughts

No. of Students- 2 (Sneha and Gauri)

Synopsis- Keeping the theme of the assembly in mind, two students presented the thoughts to invoke the need to remain confident. The thoughts were in Hindi and English. Through this the students tried to make their fellows aware of how staying confident can help them to achieve their goals.

Presentation 3- Song

No of students- 14 students

Synopsis- Titanium is a metal that can dodge a bullet. In this world of competitions, rejections and criticisms it is difficult to remain focused and optimistic. Through this song the students encouraged their fellows to be like Titanium- Strong, confident and positive. Being confident comes when one is ready to face their failures.

Presentation 4- Dance

No. of students- 20

Synopsis- Students took the theme further with the help of a dance performance on the song "Aashayein" and by showing how, if we move beyond our fears, we can fly like a bird and not only achieve success but also happiness.
