Synopsis –

A truth worthy person never gets involved in the activities that are morally wrong . The play that was presented completely validated this. It depicted how a group of students who had faith on themselves and were honest overshadowed those who relied on the leaked papers to score well. A group of students could get access to leaked papers for the examination and left studying. They also were able to influence some others. But there were some who remained adamant true to their values and strives hard. They worked hard and reaped great results as the tables turned by the end. The play caught people's attention and was praised

Presentation No 2 A BEAUTIFUL SONG

No. & Name of students –whole class

Synopsis –

Music has the ability to heal and inspire. It can instill good values and morals through melody and jingles. The students presented a beautiful melody and inspired the gathering.

Synopsis of Teacher Talk

The class teacher encouraged the students to stick to the value and always follow the path of truth. No legacy is as rich as Truth. The students felt enlightened and contented.
