

EQUALITY HOUSE ASSEMBLY- PRIMARY (05.11.2018)

“Every child is born as an original masterpiece”. We are all masterpieces of God’s creation, born with special talents. Each one of us is a unique masterpiece. With the same view, EQUALITY HOUSE presented their assembly on November 5th, 2018.

After the routine prayer, news and a well explained thought was presented by the students. It was followed by a beautiful Kathak performance. The little tiny tots of class 2 also showcased their talent through various poems on the theme. It was really nice to hear them so confidently. After this, the audience was welcomed into the world of original masterpieces where-in students dressed themselves into five different characters and presented on the same. It continued with a melodious song and an eye opening nukkad natak emphasizing the importance to follow our dreams.

As it was a Diwali week, the students also celebrated the festival of love, sweets and light. Diwali symbolizes the “victory of light over darkness” ,”good over evil” and “knowledge over ignorance”. It was well explained by the narrator and a song was presented on the same. The second picture of this festival was also shown that is causing hazardous diseases to the young children who are paid wages and often lost their lives to gunpowder explosions. Last but not the least, a beautiful dance performance was presented to celebrate the festival of lights and gifts. The students took the pledge to celebrate a pollution free Diwali.

At the end the teacher summarized the main points of the entire assembly which was followed by enlightening words of Ms. Ritu Gupta (Primary coordinator) and Ms. Anju Parashar (Overall activity incharge ).Over all the assembly was successful and gave a message to the gathering present there.
