

40th Foundation Day

An inspirational and arduous journey, inspired by the ideals of the great Saint and Pioneer Maharaja Agarsain Ji began on 10th April 1978. The celebrations of 40th Foundation Day embarked with a devotional melody by MAPS's choir signifying the glory of Maharaja Agarsain Ji. The ambience was filled with great zeal and enthusiasm to commemorate the tireless endeavors and glorious achievements of MAPS. Saraswati Kauthuvam – a hymn was presented by the primary wing students to mark the auspiciousness of the deities enlightening the audience which was followed by a scintillating dance performance by the tiny tots envisaging the Indian culture. Ever since the inception of the institution, the school has been fostering “Humaneness in education, humility in demeanor”. With this idealistic approach, the senior wing students depicted a captivating mime act capitalizing positive vision. The program culminated with a fascinating Nukkad Natak presented by The Asmita Group on the foremost buzzword ‘Women Empowerment’ recognizing independent outlook for women. Trophies were also awarded to the Best Club and Best House for the session-

Best Club- (Sr) Consumer Club

(Jr) Prism Club

Best House – (Sr) Fraternity House

(Jr) Fraternity House

The celebrations further included various activities conducted in the respective classrooms which set forth in Agarsainians the teachings of the visionary saint Maharaja Agarsain Ji. The program concluded on the appreciation note for the class-wise presentations by the honorable management members and a vote of thanks by the principal Mrs.Punam Gupta.
