

PURITY HOUSE ASSEMBLY- PRIMARY (07.12.2017)

Starting with this quote, Purity House presented their House Assembly and tried to spread the message of humanity. The coir group of the house presented a melodious song –AASAN HAI ....

With this song, they spread the message ‘If we think of something that is beneficial to the society, it is easy to have that positive change if we trust ourselves’.

Then the students, presented a theme based play based on the various human values which one should have such as kindness and helpfulness towards old people, orphan kids, child labour etc. Then the students presented a puppetry show based on the theme and joined it with the House name PURITY and piousness.

At last they presented a song in which they also requested the audience to Save Mother Earth. The programme was appreciated by all. Everyone participated enthusiastically.
