MAPS/NUR/2022/07

Teaching kids road safety is a very crucial part of raising the young ones as it directly concerns their physical safety and well-being. Everyone should know about the traffic rules and safety rules from their early days.

These road safety rules for kids will go a long way in helping them acquire the skills needed to be secure and guarded pedestrians.

We at MAPS always aim to ensure that our initiative help students be safe and confident on their journey. To introduce the students to basic road safety rules an educational excursion to
