REPORT ON TRAIN YOUR BRAIN COMPETITION

DATED: 13.2.24

“Access to computers and the Internet has become a basic need for education in our society.”- Kent Conrad.

‘Train Your Brain’ competition for little Montessorians gave and an opportunity to tackle a variety of challenges that tested their logical reasoning, critical thinking, and quick decision-making skills. By participating in the competition, students not only had the chance to demonstrate their computer skills, but also learn new techniques and strategies from other students. This competition was full of fun and learning. Students showcased their amazing computer skills.
