

FAREWELL TO BELOVED Ms. UMA UPPAL

*Bidding farewell is always tough
Words never prove to be enough
Saying goodbye is never simple*

To a teacher like Uma Ma'am who is so special

MAPS organised a farewell function for its retiring teacher Ms Uma Uppal, PRT on 30th December 2017 who after thirty years of her service gave farewell to her colleagues and students.

The function began with various performances by the primary teachers. Videos were also made for her where the students expressed their love for ma'am.

It was an emotional and touching moment as few of the teachers went down the memory lane to tell what they fondly remembered of ma'am. Her family also expressed their excitement and happiness getting ma'am for full time home now.

After many spellbound performances, Principal ma'am honoured her with gifts as token of appreciation for her dedicated services. The staff expressed her sincere and heartfelt thanks for her selfless service. Her efforts and achievements in various fields assigned to her were admired by all. She was presented with various gifts by her colleagues also. MAPS will surely miss her and wish her all the best in her retirement. The entire MAPS family simple feels honoured to be a part of her journey.

The function got over with Principal ma'am showering her wishes and delivered a speech filled with emotions. It was followed by a lunch.
