Synopsis:

Students performed a skit in which message of being true to your own self was clearly defined. Children presented and put forth their opinion and views related to the topic. The main motif highlighted by the means of play was that we should be the torch bearer of the change we want to see in this world by having the courage to take the first step. People will gain strength and confidence in your ideals and would follow the suit.

Props: GuitarSynopsis:

Song that was presented by the students was "Together we can change the world". It was all about what we can do together to bring upon the positive change in this diabolical world which has lost its essence. It also gives us a sensation to take steps in our life very cautiously in a peaceful manner. This all makes us motivated towards our goal and united towards our dreams.

Synopsis of teacher talk:

Golden words spoken by Mr.Pradeep Gupta were very effective and heart touching. All students in the assembly ground were filled with the positive vibes and enthusiasm.
