

DAY-6 ACTIVITY
(INTER HOUSE COMPETITION)

Topic-MANNERISM

Date - 18.07.20

The values like respect, loyalty, gratitude or obligation are fundamental in character and quality building of a child. Therefore, to tell the importance of these qualities, an inter house activity on the topic 'mannerism' wherein, all the students recited a poem on mannerism using props and actions. The students participated with great enthusiasm and zeal. Each student recited different poems consisting a value with creative and innovative props. Two students from each class were selected for the final round.

The winners of the final round are:

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|----------------------|------------------------|
| 1st Position | - Reet Dua | II B Fraternity |
| 2nd Position | - Aanya Jain | II F Liberty |
| 3rd Position | -Aarav Mittal | II A Purity |

The purpose of this activity was to inculcate the values of good manners such as when to say to thank you, please, sorry among students. Manners are an important part of human nature and life. Good manners earns respect and dignity.